

Traditions and Customs

Table of Contents

1. Greeting Customs
2. Politeness
3. Punctuality
4. Traditional Foods/Drinks
5. Traditional Dances
6. Topics for small talk
7. Communication

Greeting Customs

Slovenian	German
Dober dan (Good Day)	Guten Tag(Good Day)
Zdravo (Hello)	Hallo (Hello)
Shake hands with people you know	Was geht? (What's up?)
	Shake hands with people you know

Politeness

Slovenian and German

Rude behaviour at the dinner table:

- Burping
- Eating with mouth open
- Standing up right away

General aspects:

- Burping
- No Gifts

Punctuality

Slovenian

- Usually late
- Punctuality isn't important

German

Will always try to be punctual

Traditional Food / Drinks

Slovenian

- Kranjska klobasa
- Žlikrof
- Prekmurska gibanica
- Tradicionalni slovenski zajtrk

German

- Bratwurst / Currywurst
- Klöße
- Krautsalat
- Sauerkraut
- Sauerbraten
- Schweinshaxe
- ...

Prekmurska
gibanica:

Sauerbraten
mit Klößen und
Rotkohl:

Traditional Dances

Slovenian

Polka (polka)

German

Walzer (wals)
Disco fox

Slow wals:

Polka:

Topics for small talk

Slovenian	German
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• School• Work	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Weather• School• Work

Communication

Slovenian	German
Indirect	Direct